CHICAGO—(ENEWSPF)—November 1, 2016. On Wednesday, November 16 at 7 p.m., leading gay rights attorney Elizabeth F. Schwartz will spell out the range of practical considerations couples should address before tying the knot, and explore the rights marriage provides – and those it does not. The event will be held at the Center on Halsted, 3656 N. Halsted Street in Chicago.

Covering parental rights, estate planning, pre- and post-nuptial agreements, finances, and much more, Before I Do is a crucial handbook that is relevant for all couples. After all, just because you can get married doesn't mean you should.

Join us in conversation with the author, her book, and its topics. Light refreshments and drinks will be available.

This event is possible due to the sponsorship of Center on Halsted, Amy Bloom Inc, Maia Lis Benson & Katie Burgoon, Amie Klujian/SwakeGroup at Dream Town Realty, Dr. Barbara A. Heller, Mystic Images Photography, & Tsamis Law Firm.
